Maestro Greene, a local attorney for more than 34 years, founded the LA Lawyers Phil in January 2009 to unite attorneys and judges who are also talented musicians. It’s an orchestra where prosecutors, defense attorneys, civil trial lawyers, entertainment lawyers, corporation lawyers, real estate lawyers, personal injury lawyers, probate lawyers, judges and law students meet in harmony. The members include conservatory graduates, professional musicians and some hobbyists who are dusting off instruments they played in their youth. It is the music that prevails.
